REGULATIONS FOR TO PUBLISH ONE ARTICLE IN THE RE&PQJ JOURNAL

The procedure has the following steps:

STEP 1. We receive, before one established date, all the proposals of articles for the journal following one specific template.

The proposals could be extended abstracts of a minimum of two A4 double columns pages and a maximum of three or, preferably, provisional full papers of 4 to 6 double columns pages, in Word or Adobe Acrobat (.pdf), with the title of the paper, authors, the complete contact information and electronic address, five key words, interest of the work, objectives, main contributions and the four most important references.

Previously to include the proposals in the journal they will be presented at the "International Conference on Renewable Energy and Power Quality (ICREPQ)".

STEP 2. The Journal Editorial Board (JEB) send for the peer review each of the proposals of articles to three reviewers of the Journal Scientific Committee (JSC) or the ICREPQ International Scientific Committee(ICREPQ-ISC), that usually are the same members. The reviewers are selected by the JEB take into account the thematic of the article and the research experience of the members of the JSC.

STEP 3. The reviewers selected have a maximum of 30 days for to review each article, take into account his originality, interest, quality, elaboration, references and objectives/ conclusions and then they can suggest to the JEB reject the article or to accepted it with some changes.

When the proposal is one extended abstract the three JEB members send a message to the JEB that, in a couple of days, send a letter of the authors asking for a provisional full article.

STEP 4. The JEB send, in one or two days, to the responsible author of the article, provisionally accepted by almost two of the three reviewers, without any mention about the name of the reviewers, all the remarks and considerations for to improve the article, and then the authors have 20 days for to improve it and send it again to the JEB for one second review.

When the proposal is one extended abstract the three JEB members that review it propose reject it because the content has not too much interest or if the proposals has interest send a message to the JEB that, in one or two days, send a letter of the authors asking for a provisional full article/paper for the second review.

The article rejected by two or the three reviewers the JEB reject it and, in a few days, send a letter to the responsible author with all the comments of the reviewers, without any mention about the name of the reviewers.

STEP 5. The JEB send, in one or two days, the improved article to the same three reviewers and then they have 15 days for to review again the article and send to the JEB their comments and proposals about to accept or reject the article. If almost two of the reviewers accept the article then it will be accepted by the JEB and, in one or two days, they send a letter to the responsible author. If it is not the JEB will send a letter rejected the article.

STEP 6. The accepted articles will be presented by almost one of the authors to the International Conference on Renewable Energies and Power Quality of that year.

STEP 7. After the conference the authors have 15 days for to improve their articles take into accounts the comments received during the conference.

STEP 8. The accepted articles presented in the conference, after numbered and sent the metadates for the DOI and the identification and assessment of plagiarism using the iThenticate, will be included in the journal of that year.
